

I am pleased to have this opportunity to provide a testimonial for Western Camp Services. We have used their services for both Camp and Catering for several seasons now, and their services are second to none.

Western Camp Services provides professional operations from the field right through to head office. As in everyone's business it is hard to keep qualified staff and we want our people in the field to have the best amenities available.

Western's personnel look after our interests, and I highly recommend them to anyone who requires their services.

Sincerely,
